PARK & RIDE SERVICE

Frequently Asked Questions

How often will the shuttle bus run?

The bus will either leave The Apollo Hotel or Basingstoke Leisure Park every 30 minutes. Please take a look at the timetables to plan your journey.

How long is the bus journey?

Good news! The bus journey from Basingstoke Leisure Park to The Apollo Hotel is less than 5 minutes and best of all, you're guaranteed a parking space! The journey time from the venue back to Basingstoke Leisure Park is slightly longer because of all our lovely roundabouts, but you'll still be back to your car in less than 10 minutes!

Do I need a ticket?

No you won't need a ticket. Just ask the driver before boarding that you're definitely on the right bus to take you to the expo, as the official Basingstoke park and ride buses will also be using the bus stop throughout the day.

How do I claim my free hot drink voucher?

All delegates that use the park and ride service will be entitled to a free tea or coffee. Simply collect a voucher from the bus driver either when you board or leave the bus. Please note that only the driver will be issuing vouchers on the day.

Do I have to use the park and ride?

You don't have to use the park and ride bus, but as you know our events do get busy and so do the car parks! If you want to avoid any stress and guarantee yourself somewhere to park, we really do recommend using the park and ride service.

Who else will be using the shuttle bus?

The park and ride bus that we are operating from Basingstoke Leisure Park to The Apollo Hotel will only be available to visitors attending the business expo. This means you'll get an extra opportunity to network and make new connections with those visiting the event.

What time does the first bus leave Basingstoke Leisure Park?

The first bus leaves Basingstoke Leisure Park at 9.45am, meaning you'll arrive at the venue just as the doors open. The buses will then run every 30 minutes. Please take a look at the bus timetable for more information.

What time does the last bus leave The Apollo Hotel?

The last bus leaves The Apollo Hotel at 3.15pm. The event officially closes at 3.00pm, however don't stress about getting the bus back! If you want to stay longer, you can always arrange a taxi at the hotel reception.

Do the wheels on the bus go round and round?

Yes, all day long!
